To The Candidate

You are about to enter the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, having been chosen by your Brethren for that high honor. It is not an idle step. Scottish Rite Masonry is a philosophy of life, teaching the relations which you should sustain toward your fellow man, as well as your relations to God, and the ceremonies should be approached reverently, and with earnestness of purpose. If you have any other purpose than making more of yourself as a man—a better citizen, and a more useful member of society,—you are making a mistake in knocking at these portals. The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man are emphasized in these degrees, and the student of the philosophy of the degrees as unfolded in their presentation, may get a lot of pleasure and much profit out of them. But it is up to you. “There is no royal road to learning,” and there is no royal road to the mysteries of the Scottish Rite. It is an individual matter, and if you would be more useful to yourself and your community and to the Rite you must do more than merely listen to the unfolding of the lessons of the degrees. The light you must carry out into the world with you, and exemplify to those about you the beautiful lessons taught. If they are not put into effect in your life and character they are but so much “sounding brass and tinkling cymbals.” The opportunity is before you to make yourself a Mason to whom your friends and neighbors will point as one worthy of the name.

If you become a Prince of the Royal Secret by receiving the Thirty-second Degree and are no better or wiser than when you began your journey, your investment of time and money will have been in vain. If, however, you bring a receptive mind and a sensitive heart to these degrees, you will indeed be a wiser and a better man. Many men have been reborn, intellectually and spiritually, during the conferring of these Degrees. It is the hope and prayer of the Masters and other members of these Bodies that your experience may be rich, significant and profitable.

The law requires all visitors to have properly authenticated patents or letters of credence, together with identification cards, from Bodies recognized by and in relations of amity with the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of the United States of America.

SUSPENSION IN BLUE LODGE

If a member is suspended in his Blue Lodge for non-payment of dues, or other cause, he automatically loses his membership in the Scottish Rite Bodies.

REGULAR MEETINGS OF THE SCOTTISH RITE BODIES

Regular meetings of the Scottish Rite Bodies are held on the first Wednesday in each month at 7:30 P.M.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Kindly notify the Secretary of any change of your mailing address, in order that communications addressed to you may be delivered promptly.
