Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the Supreme Council, 33°, A. & A. S. R., for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America ("Mother Council of the World"), includes all of the United States and Territories thereof (as well as the Army and Navy of the United States), and also Hawaii and the Empires of China and Japan; except the States of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin, which fifteen States were apportioned by said Supreme Council to the Supreme Council for the Northern Masonic Jurisdiction of the United States in the year 1827.

The Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States, under whose authority we work, disclaims all jurisdiction or control over the Degrees of Entered Apprentice, Fellow Craft and Master Mason, and accepts only applicants for its Degrees who are Master Masons in good standing in Lodges recognized by the Grand Lodge of the State in which the applicant resides.

The Ineffable Degrees, as conferred in this jurisdiction, begin with the Fourth and extend through the Fourteenth, and are conferred in Lodges of Perfection.

Historical and Religious Degrees begin with the Fifteenth and extend through the Eighteenth, and are conferred in Chapters of Rose Croix.

The Chivalric and Philosophic Degrees begin with the Nineteenth and extend through the Thirtieth, and are conferred in Councils of Kadosh.

The Official Degrees are the Thirty-first and Thirty-second, and are conferred in the Consistories.

Secretary's Bulletin

An applicant for the degrees in this Valley must be an affiliated Master Mason in good standing, and a resident of the State of Texas for six months. If lodge membership is held outside of Texas, a certificate of good standing or receipt for dues for the current year must accompany the petition. Forfeiture of rights as a Master Mason for any reason works a forfeiture ipso facto of all rights in the Scottish Rite.

It is not required that the degrees in all of the different Bodies shall be taken at one session. A candidate may stop at the close of any one Body, if it is not convenient to proceed further.

PATENTS

Handsomely executed patents (in Latin and English) will be furnished all new members who attain the Thirty-second degree. They are issued under the seal of the Supreme Council of the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America.

LADIES' CERTIFICATES

The Supreme Council issues certificates to the wife, widow, mother, sister or daughter of any Thirty-second degree member of the Rite in this Jurisdiction. These certificates are obtainable through the Secretary. The price is $2.00.

Data required for certificate: Name in full; date of birth; residence; relationship (wife, widow, mother, sister, daughter); the brother's name in full and degree, and his residence.

RING 14°

Perfect Elus (14°) of this Jurisdiction should wear the ring of the degree on the third finger of the left hand (not counting the thumb); it should be a flat gold band; engraved within the ring the motto of the degree, "Virtus Junxit Mors Non Separabit" (Whom Virtue Unites Death Cannot Separate), also the name of the brother, and the date on which he received the Fourteenth degree.

ADMISSION BY CARD ONLY

Brethren will please take notice that, in accordance with the Statutes of the Supreme Council and under our By-Laws, a Brother not in possession of an identification card for the current year cannot be admitted to the meetings of the reunion or of the Bodies of the Rite. Identification cards must be presented to the registration committee. THIS RULE IS IMPERATIVE.

Identification cards can only be issued by the Secretary, upon payment of dues in full, including the calendar year.

VISITORS

The law requires all visitors to have properly authenticated patents or letters of credence, together with identification cards, from Bodies recognized by and in relations of amity with the Supreme Council of the Southern Masonic Jurisdiction, A. A. S. Rite of the United States of America.

SUSPENSION IN BLUE LODGE

If a member is suspended in his Blue Lodge for nonpayment of dues, or other cause, he automatically loses his membership in the Scottish Rite Bodies.

REGULAR MEETINGS OF THE SCOTTISH RITE BODIES

Regular meetings of the Scottish Rite Bodies are held on the first Friday in each month.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS

Kindly notify the Secretary of any change in your postoffice address, in order that communications addressed to you may be delivered promptly. The last address furnished him is the one used, and should you change your residence without notifying him your mail may fail of delivery.

SPECIAL TO CANDIDATES

Candidates must report to the Secretary at the Scottish Rite Cathedral not later than 8:00 a. m., Monday, April 15, 1929. The class will be promptly organized at that time, and anyone absenting himself will delay the work just that much and confuse the proper handling of the matters essential to such organization. Candidates living in the city may present themselves on Saturday or Sunday before the Reunion for registration. This will help out materially in preventing a rush in the office on the first day of the Reunion.

INFORMATION

The Secretary will be pleased to give any information regarding the Rite that is in his power to furnish.

Fraternally submitted,

JOE HENRY MUENSTER, 33°,

Address:

Austin, Texas.

General Secretary.

A Word to Candidates from the Entertainment Committee

One of the principal duties of the Entertainment Committee is to look after the comfort and entertainment of those taking the degrees during our Scottish Rite Reunions. This is a pleasant duty and one of the many results is the formation of life-long friendships which are begun during these Reunions.

The Entertainment Committee plans to meet all incoming trains beginning Sunday evening, April 14, for the purpose of escorting candidates and visitors to the Cathedral or hotel. Cars will also be at the service of the members of the class during the entire week, and the members of the Entertainment Committee will be on hand to render any service possible, even to running errands.

Out-of-town candidates may facilitate matters by communicating with George W. Tod, Box 982, Austin, Texas, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and advising him of the date and hour of their arrival. He will also be glad to make hotel reservations or any other arrangements, if the candidates will make their wants known to him.

The Entertainment Committee will have charge of the serving of two meals each day during the Reunion for the convenience of the candidates. This saves time and confusion and adds much to the pleasure of our meetings. Meals will be furnished to all members of the class by the Scottish Rite Bodies during the time the degrees are being taken.

As an additional feature for the entertainment of the class, visitors and members, Stephen F. Austin Chapter, Order of DeMolay, will confer the Initiatory and DeMolay Degrees immediately after the conferring of the Twenty-third degree on Tuesday evening. This feature will be open to all Master Masons.

This Chapter of DeMolay is sponsored by the Scottish Rite Bodies of Austin and should enjoy your interest and support.

The chairman of the Entertainment Committee and the individual members extend to you a most cordial invitation to be with us, and assure you that they will do all in their power to make your visit long remembered as one of the most pleasant experiences of a lifetime.

Fourth Degree—Secret Master

Henry Herman Hankey, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The Fourth Degree, or Secret Master, is the first step into the inner sanctuary of the Spiritual Temple, where he who seeks finds Truth. In this degree, we are to learn the duty of obedience to law, not to the edict of a tyrant, contrary to the law of God or nature, but the law that is an expression of the will and judgment of the people and for the benefit of the whole people.

King Solomon.....Henry Herman Hankey, 32°

Fifth Degree—Perfect Master

Charles Morriston Ashmore, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The Fifth Degree, or Perfect Master, emphasizes the two virtues, Industry and Honesty. The Master Khurum (Hiram) had both these virtues. Idleness is the great enemy of growth, whether mental or spiritual. It is the breeder of mischief and vice. "To sleep little, study much; say little, think and hear much; to learn to do earnestly and vigorously whatever is required by duty" are the precepts of the Mason who follows the Master. A Mason should also be honest in his contracts, sincere in his statements, and keep all promises and covenants even to his own disadvantage.

William Madden Fly, 32° K. C. C. H., Degree Master

DIGEST

The Sixth Degree, or Confidential Secretary, teaches us to be zealous, faithful, disinterested and benevolent. No good Mason can be worldly, covetous or sensual, but must be kind and affectionate, broad-minded and charitable, keeping his thoughts only on the good and true, with a feeling of thankfulness for all favors rendered and a sincere desire to do unto his brother as he would wish done unto him.

Seventh Degree—Provost and Judge

Gustave Johnson, 33°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The Seventh Degree, or Provost and Judge, has for its chief lesson the great principle of justice. Those with the power of judgment should judge impartially, without any personal consideration, without prejudice or preconception and without haste. Two kinds of injustice may be done a fellow-man: one where a man does an injury to another, the other where he fails to avert an injury when it is in his power to do so. A man may repent, be forgiven both by God and man, yet the consequences remain. In judging a wrong, we should remember the motive and temptation. Some men are born with noble instincts, while others are less fortunate. Perhaps the man who leads a clean life has never had the temptation which came to his fallen brother; so we should judge with charity and pitying kindness.

Eighth Degree—Intendant of the Building

Lemuel Edward Maddox, 32°, Degree Master
Earnest Joseph Luark, 18°, Assistant Degree Master

DIGEST

The Eighth Degree, or Intendant of the Building, impresses upon the candidate the futility of advancing unless the lessons already taught have been carefully considered. The jurisprudence, learning and morality of Masonry, and not the mere work and ceremonies, should have our most profound thought and attention. We are seekers after Light, and we should consider this earthly life of ours a field for noble action, the beginning of heaven and a part of immortality. This degree teaches us that we have high duties to perform and a high destiny to fulfill on this earth. We should love this earth as the garden on which the Creator has lavished such miracles of beauty, has made it the dwelling place of the wise and good, the place of opportunity for the development of the noblest passions, the tenderest sympathies and the loftiest virtues.

Ninth Degree—Elu of the Nine

Sully Bayard Roberdeau, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

This degree is consecrated to bravery, devotedness and patriotism. It is summed up in "Protect the oppressed against the oppressor and devote yourself to honor and interest of your country." Masonry calls for active service in comforting the unfortunate and raising the degraded. Most men have sentiment to the right, but do the wrong. They may talk much of virtue but live little of it. They may even talk much of wrongs but do little to eradicate them. He who fights against cruelty, oppression, wrongs and abuse fights for his country's honor. Life is not measured by days but by the deeds we have done for our fellow-man and our country.

Tenth Degree—Elu of the Fifteen

Fred Lewis Blundell, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

This degree is devoted to religious and political toleration and to the enlightenment of the mind and soul. Toleration holds that every man has a right to his opinion, and liberality claims that no human being can say he alone knows the truth. Whatever a man sincerely and conscientiously believes is truth to him, and only through enlightenment and education are intolerance and fanaticism put down. Masonry is not a religion, but is founded on the essential truths of all religions; it is the universal morality underlying every creed. A belief in the one true God and a moral and virtuous life are the only requirements that Masonry promulgates as a necessity for membership.

Eleventh Degree—Elu of the Twelve

Frank James Swartz, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The duties of this degree are to be earnest, true, reliable and sincere; to protect the people against illegal impositions; and contend for their political rights. It is a Mason's duty to serve his brothers; not Masons alone, but all humanity. The safety of every free government depends upon the integrity of the common people. The nation that bases its greatness on the tyranny over prostrate states, heavy and unjust taxation and crafty alliances will find its empire tottering in ruins. Masonry should do all in its power to protect the people, to better their living conditions and to supply their needs.

Twelfth Degree—Master Architect

Hugh Thomas Insall, 32°, Degree Master
Mark Hutchins Young, 32°, Assistant Degree Master

DIGEST

The human soul ever travels toward the Light and God. It never wholly loses the sense of its own powers, but there are many faculties within us of which we are dimly conscious: to arouse that slumbering soul-consciousness to the realization of Truth is the divinest object of all human helpfulness. Masonry strives to develop these half-forgotten God-given traits and to induce men to accept them as their guide. Life is what each man makes it; the optimist turns every trial into a blessing; the pessimist sees only ruin and disaster. All our earthly transactions and institutions are based on faith in our fellow-man. How much more so must we believe in God. The belief in a Supreme Being is an instinct in all races. No man can suffer and be patient, can struggle and conquer, can improve and be happy, without faith in a just, wise and beneficent God.

Thirteenth Degree—Royal Arch of Solomon

William Richmond Fristoe, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

For centuries, the Hebrews have been forbidden to pronounce the sacred name of God, and whenever it occurred they have read the name "Adonai" instead. The knowledge of the true pronunciation was supposed to give to the possessor supernatural powers. This idea of the sanctity of the Creator's name was common to all ancient nations. Among them the conception of God varied according to their intellectual capacities: among the ignorant, He was invested with the lower attributes of humanity; among the spiritual, He was a Being pure and holy. This knowledge of God, however, was not given out to the common people, but was kept secret by the favored few. The communication of this knowledge of the true nature of the Creator with other esoteric truths is what is now called Free Masonry, which under other names has existed since the beginning of the human race.

Fourteenth Degree—Grand Elect, Perfect and Sublime Mason

Merton Leonard Harris, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

This degree is the last of the Lodge of Perfection and we have reached the point where each individual Mason must discover the secret of Masonry for himself. This can be done only upon reflection of its symbols and a wise consideration and analysis of what has been said and done in the work. Perfect Truth is unattainable, yet we must ever press on, more nearly approaching it. We receive as much of the Divine Light as we are capable of understanding. God has arranged His great purpose so that each man has a work to do, a duty to perform to help in the progress of the great plan for culightenment and growth. The Mason believes that the sorrows and trials of this life are a part of the plan of God, designed to purify and strengthen our souls. Surely a wise and merciful God would not send these things upon his children without some ultimate good resulting. On this life depends our future well-being, and we should so live that death will have no terror for us, but will be only a release from this earth to spiritual realms above.

DIGEST

This is the first degree of the Knights Rose Croix, and the leading lesson is fidelity to obligation and constancy under difficulty. Masonry carries on a war against ignorance, intolerance and error. The chief stumbling blocks on the way to success in this crusade are the indifference of its own members and the world. Masonry teaches that God is paternal, having a concern for each individual, for each individual soul is an emanation from Him, made for good and not evil. Therefore, we must persevere even as the ancient brethren have done, notwithstanding all obstacles. We must resist temptation and be upright and virtuous, assisting in God's great plan for the eternal salvation of the universe.

DICEST

The story of the rebuilding of the temple at Jerusalem is of peculiar interest to Masons, and while we no longer plan to build it, yet its story ever conveys to us the thought that the world and every noble heart is God's temple and we should labor to establish the reign of love and peace, thus building a lasting temple to God. The trowel is the emblem of this degree, teaching Masons the ennobling effect of honest labor. The work of the soul, developing the virtues of patience and gentleness, ought to be as important to us as that of earning our daily bread.

Seventeenth Degree—Knight of the East and West

Edward Christian Henry Bantel, 33°, Degree Master

DIGEST

This is the first of the philosophical degrees which penetrate the inner mysteries of Masonry. In all times, Truth has been concealed in symbols. At the time of John the Baptist, all the ancient philosophical and religious doctrines became intermingled on account of the various conquests which brought the nations together. John, who taught some creed older than Christianity, must have belonged to the sect of Essenes, which was very similar to Christianity. It is from the Essenes that this degree is sprung. The Essenes believed that Truth was scattered throughout the world among different sects. They believed it the duty of man to gather these fragments of divine revelation into a harmonious whole, to be used in spreading right thinking and right living among mankind. Thus they combined the thought of the Orient and the Occident, from which fact we draw the name of this degree.

George Albert Giese, 32°, Degree Master
Amos Martin Felts, 32°, Assistant Degree Master

DIGEST

This is the first degree of the Council of Kadosh. In it the fact of the influence of the past upon the present and future is forcibly exemplified. The true Mason labors for the enlightenment of future ages. All good men hope to live after their death through the work they have done. We still feel the influence of the great deeds of heroism done in the past and are uplifted by the monuments of art and literature of ages gone by. It is the dead that govern. The living only obey, for we are still governed by the laws enacted in the past. Then let us so live that our acts may endure to uplift a brother unborn.

Twentieth Degree—Master of the Symbolic Lodge

James Bouldin Rector, 32° K. C. C. H., Degree Master

DIGEST

As Grand Master of all Lodges one must first learn to be able to teach. There is nothing more sublime than leading the initiate into the sublime truth of Masonry, but to do so properly requires the utmost study and thought. The legends and allegories recited by Masonry are of worth only when understood. The lessons of this degree are liberty, fraternity, and equality. These must be applied to every day life and not reserved for the lodge room only. The world will judge us by our acts and Masonry itself will be judged by the character of its members. Let the Light shine always.

Twenty-first Degree—Noachite, or Prussian Knight

Benjamin Carroll Tharp, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

In this degree we are admonished to be modest and humble, speaking only of the good in mankind and forgetting the evil. Slander is the exact opposite to mercy, for "Mercy blesseth him that gives and him that takes," while slander curses him that speaks it, and to say the least, does no good to the other. Our ancient brethren met to redress wrongs and defend the helpless. Masonry today has the same great mission, and woe to him or them who would attempt to destroy it.

Allen Emmett Hancock, 33°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The lessons of this degree have always been of great moment to a large number of people. The respect for labor itself and sympathy for the laboring classes are purely Masonic. Masonry has made a workingman and his associates the heroes of her principal legend, and himself the companion of kings. From first to last, Masonry is work. Labor is man's great function, his peculiar distinction and his privilege. He pours his own thoughts into the moulds of nature, fashioning them into forms of grace and fabrics of convenience.

Twenty-third Degree—Chief of the Tabernacle

Thomas Coleman Green, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

Most of the ancient religious ceremonies consisted of public worship and private rites, called the Mysteries, which only the Initiated could attend. Only after years of practice of the most rigid virtue and great spiritual development could the initiate hope to attain the greater mysteries. These ceremonies were often held at night in some secret place and consisted of sacred dramas, portraying some legend which contained a lesson, but little explanation was given and each candidate was left to interpret the truths for himself. Moses undoubtedly received from the Egyptians these Mysteries and in turn taught them to the Hebrew priesthood, emphasizing the doctrine of the one God, supreme and unapproachable.

Twenty-fourth Degree—Prince of the Tabernacle

Erma Collin Munro, 32° K. C. C. C., Degree Master

DIGEST

The Jewish Tabernacle was more symbolic than an ordinary reading of the Scriptures would indicate. Whether it was copied after other religions or not has never been settled to the satisfaction of the leading scholars. Josephus, the great Hebrew historian, says that in the construction of it, and its vestments and sacred vessels, the whole world was in some way represented. In this we again see the influence of the Egyptians' teachings. The twelve loaves of shew bread signify the twelve months of the year and the candlestick the twelve signs of the Zodiac. Philo asserts that the cherubim represented the two hemispheres.

Twenty-fifth Degree—Knight of the Brazen Serpent

Thomas Hall Shelby, 30°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The serpent was regarded in olden days with reverence and was known as the author of the fate of souls. The serpent in coil with head erect was the royal ensign of the Pharos. Other mysteries as well as those of the Hebrews and Gnostics consecrated it. In those of Bacchus Saba-Zeus it was flung into the bosom of the Initiate. In a system of degrees so complete as the Scottish Rite, it was necessary to teach every religion and philosophy known and so in this degree, we find the moral lesson of some of the older religions taught with vigor, especially that of the mystical death, which symbolized the descent of the soul into the infernal regions and afterwards its rise to the state of light, truth and perfection.

Stephen German Gernert, 32° K. C. C. H.,
Degree Master

DIGEST

To know many sciences and to know them thoroughly is an impossible task for our finite minds. But we can take time from our daily tasks to learn a little. That the light from some great sun has been traveling toward the earth for many centuries and is not yet visible to us is almost unbelievable, when we know that light travels 186,000 miles each second, and yet is it any more wonderful to know that the great tree, the clinging vine and the little plant all spring from seeds so similar that only a botanist can tell one from another. The truth is that everything in nature is a mystery to us and we are mysteries to ourselves. Then let us watch and pray for that understanding which comes only after being tried in the fire of time and experience.

Twenty-seventh Degree—Knight Com- mander of the Temple

Roger Earl Wickline, 32°. Degree Master

DIGEST

Practical charity, knightly attributes of character and a scorn for the base and selfish are but a few of the lessons taught in this degree. Truth and honor are more to be cultivated than the gathering of wealth and power, and while we have been studying the historical, philosophical and religious lessons of Masonry, let us not forget the practical side of it, ever remembering our many duties to the poor and helpless, the weak and unhappy.

Twenty-eighth Degree—Knight of the Sun, Adept

Abraham Harrison Swanson, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

The study of the ancient religions is of such vast proportions, that were one able to devote his entire lifetime to it, he could not hope to complete it. The worship of the sun and its planets, with more or less variations, was the most prevalent, although originally the planets, as well as fire, light and heat, were but symbols, or rather outward manifestations of the Supreme Being or Intellect. Almost every heathen nation, or at least all of whose Mythology we have knowledge, believed in one supreme God, whose name was never uttered. All rites and creeds, the evolution of some one or more of these ancient beliefs, have come down to us, sometimes purified by experience and added wisdom, but often a distorted vision has made what once was pure as gold nothing but dross. This degree especially was the real belief of our first brethren, who lived long before the Pyramids of Egypt or the first Babylon.

Twenty-ninth Degree—Scottish Knight of Saint Andrew

Rush Andrews Modrall, Jr., 32° K. C. C. H., Degree Master

Donald McColl, 32°, Assistant Degree Master

DIGEST

Traditions and folk songs, handed down through the ages, are the foundation stones for the building of the national character. The glorious achievements of our ancestors are the beacon lights of our efforts today. The cross of St. Andrew has always been the emblem of humility, patience and self-denial, and even more than these, that of charity and forbearance for the weak, the poor, and the helpless; the knights of old held virtue and truth and honor the most essential qualities of character.

 Erma Collin Munro, 32° K. C. C. H., Assistant
 Degree Master

DIGEST

Of all the degrees of the Scottish Rite, we should consider this as one of the most important. "Lives of great men," as the poet has said, "remind us we can make our lives sublime." If in death there is life, then the great martyrs of history live indeed in the hearts of the followers after truth. Every Mason who has attained this degree should study the history of the Templars, for it is as true now as then that the esoteric teachings of Masonry are only to be appreciated when studied diligently and continually. This degree particularly teaches the great necessity of combating arbitrary and unscrupulous power and all influences which would keep the people in ignorance.

Thirty-first Degree—Inspector Inquisitor

Claude Morley Bartholomew, 32° K. C. C. H.,
Degree Master

DIGEST

The title of this Degree conveys the thought of self-examination as well as that of others. Every man, and more especially every Mason, should ponder prayerfully and soberly on his thoughts and acts of the day. The wrongs of today must not be repeated on the morrow, for each day should add some light and truth for our guidance of the next, and then as the days and weeks and months go by our characters should be so far above reproach, so filled with love for our fellowman, that the world would instinctively say: "There is a good man for he is a Mason." To correct the faults of others, to admonish with love and forbearance, is the duty we owe each other, but never to judge, for that is a divine prerogative alone.

Thirty-second Degree—Master of the Royal Secret

George Green, 32°, Degree Master

DIGEST

In this degree the crowning point is reached by those who have studied and thought. The Royal Secret like the occult science of the ancients is concealed even here—but remember, "Faith begins where Reason sinks exhausted." Magic, contrary to the belief of many, is but the absolute science of nature and its laws, hence the Star of Hope shines for us as truly as it did for the Wise Men of the East two thousand years ago. Today, as in the first days of the creation, the universal equilibrium still retains its predominant position in the eternal plan of the Omnipotent. Good and evil, right and wrong, justice and mercy, attraction and repulsion, balance each other to teach us to remember ourselves as immortal souls, retaining for each other respect and charity, and remembering always that each is slowly climbing to the State of Perfection, the final goal of all.
